President Names Air Safety Board To Probe Crashes

Seek Steps To End Deadly
Toll Of Aviation Disasters
In Nation

DEATH TOLL 146
IN FIFTEEN DAYS

WASHINGTON, June 16. —(INS)—The full power of the United States government was thrown behind the newly-appointed Truman air safety board today in its mission to end the deadly toll of aviation disasters.

President Truman named five of the nation's top aviation experts to conduct the safety inquiry, about 48 hours after a Capital Airliner crashed into a West Virginia mountainside with a toll of 50 lives.

This crash brought the nation's aerial death toll to 146 for a 15-day period and to 244 in six recent major disasters.

Board Is Named

The president named James M. Landis, Civil Aeronautics Board chairman, to head the special board. Other members are Dr. Jerome C. Hunsaker, chairman, national advisory committee for aeronautics; Brig. Gen. Milton W. Arnold of the Air Transport Association; Civil Aeronautics Administrator Theodore P. Wright, and H. B. Cox, veteran pilot of the Air Line Pilots' Association.

The board meets tomorrow to organize and draft a campaign for bringing safety to American Airways.

Up in the Blue Ridge mountains, near Leesburg, Va., a group of CAB inspectors were conducting a four-pronged inquiry into the crash of the Capital Airliner. Search of the scattered wreckage of the smashed plane, a DC-4 converted from army wartime use, failed so far to disclose the cause of the disaster.

Airline officials and Red Cross workers, aided by FBI fingerprint experts, positively identified 35 of the victims, and one other tentatively. The experts encountered major difficulties in attempting to identify the remaining dead. As a result, the Leesburg coroner sent telegrams to relatives of the other victims, recommending burial of the remaining bodies in Leesburg.

One macabre aspect of the disaster...

Second Flood Within Week In Iowa Areas

OTTUMWA, Ia., June 16.—(INS)—Flood waters of the rampaging Des Moines river swept down on Keosauqua, Ia., below Ottumwa today, leaving more than 15,000 persons homeless in Iowa for the second time within a week.

The new flood again threatened the three corn-belt states of Iowa, Illinois and Missouri. Keosauqua, a town of 1,040 population on the bend of the Des Moines river, was declared the next danger point in the new flood that already has caused ten million dollars in damage in Iowa and has poured over 25 Iowa counties, much of it rich farm land.

One Death Reported

Only one death was reported as the new flood threat came while Iowa was recovering from last week's inundation that left four dead in Ottumwa.

Marion Edie, 22, of Emerson, Ia., was drowned when he fell through a trap door of a coal car while working with a railroad crew repairing a washed out bridge over the East Nishnabotna river near Red Oak in southwest Iowa.

A flood crest of 25 feet was expected.

Pravda Attacks Marshall's Policy

MOSCOW, June 16.—(INS)—Pravda attacked Secretary of State Marshall's proposal for the reconstruction of Europe today as an excuse "for interference in the domestic affairs of other countries."

The article called the proposed program, which includes an American offer of reconstruction credits, an excuse "for interference in the domestic affairs of other countries."

It said: "As soon as any country, for instance Hungary, purges her government bodies of conspirators convicted in court there immediately sounds the bossy shout of the United States."

The article referred to Secretary Marshall's Harvard university speech where the plan was first proposed, and asked: "Why was the phraseology of Marshall's presentation of the Truman doctrine deliberately obscure?"

Then it provided the answer: "The reason lies in the diminishing popularity of Truman's policy both in Europe and America."

Convict Five Of Complicity In Mass Jail-Break

Three Are Sentenced To Death
And Two Others Get 15
Years In Prison

(BULLETIN)

JERUSALEM, June 16.—(INS)—Five Jewish extremists were convicted by a Jerusalem military court today of complicity in last month's daring raid that led to the mass jailbreak of Acre Prison fortress.

Three were sentenced to death and the other two 15-year prison terms.

Throughout the trial, the court was surrounded by a heavy military guard to prevent any possible underground effort to release their captured comrades.

The sensational raid on the Acre Prison, reportedly conducted by the militant Irgun Zvai Leumi, led to the immediate escape of 251 Jewish and Arab prisoners.

Twenty-three of them were recaptured shortly after the break, and 39 others surrendered within the next five days.

Seamen And Longshoremen Begin Strike

Nation-Wide "Work Stop-
page" Of C. I. O. Seamen
And Longshoremen
Is Launched

NEW YORK, June 16.—(INS)—A nation-wide work stoppage of 200,000 CIO seamen and longshoremen began today, threatening to paralyze shipping in all Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf ports.

The strategy of the seamen was described as a "sitdown" aimed at forcing the ship owners to force the men from the ships and establish what the union terms a lockout.

First action came in New York when Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union ordered all union members to "stand pat."

He ordered: "All crews should remain aboard ships as long as possible but there should be no signing on or sailing of vessels."

West Coast Phase Eased

(The West Coast phase of the maritime crisis was eased when an agreement was reached to extend without change for another year labor contracts covering CIO waterfront clerks, checkers and supercargo men.)

(The West Coast CIO Maritime Committee charged that the ship-owners were "plotting" to cancel new agreements already negotiated and institute what the committee termed a "100 percent lockout.")

(Three CIO unions, the Maritime Cooks and Stewards, the American Communications Association and the National Maritime Union, failed to reach agreements with owners at the midnight deadline.)

MMU officials conferred yesterday with ship owners and operators for four hours with a representative of the U. S. Conciliation Service present. A night meeting was scheduled.

Begin Probe In Palestine

U. N. Committee Starts
Palestine Investigation
In Tense Atmosphere

JERUSALEM, June 16.—(INS)—The United Nations committee began its Palestine investigation today in a tense atmosphere of distrust and organized opposition.

In a last minute bid to win cooperation from recalcitrant Arabs, committee chairman Chief Justice Emil Sandstrom announced investigations will be temporarily suspended after meetings scheduled for today and tomorrow.

The Swedish justice also prepared an appeal for broadcast in three languages this afternoon over the Palestine radio.

Organized Boycott

The Arab higher committee, meanwhile, won 100 per cent Arab support for its organized boycott of the investigating group and for its Palestine-wide protest strike today.

Communist Arabs, who previously said they would testify before the committee, decided at the last minute to join both the strike and the boycott.

The United States fact-finding group will suspend operations temporarily late Tuesday for a tour of Jerusalem and Holy Land villages. The decision was made in the hope that Arabs will reverse their policy and file a request to appear before the committee.

Petroleum Supply Conference Called

Cabinet Members And Key Government Agency Members Will Confer On Gas Situation

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—Top government officials were alerted today for an all-out attempt to cope with the nation's critical petroleum supply shortage, which may deprive thousands of motorists of gasoline within the next month.

Eight cabinet members and heads of three key government agencies were called to meet tomorrow with Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug in an effort to find a solution to the problem, one of the most serious the country has faced since V-J Day.

Asked to confer with Krug were the secretary of state, treasury, war, navy, agriculture, commerce and labor; the attorney general, and heads of the Maritime commission, the Federal Power commission, and the Office of Defense Transportation.

President Truman will be represented at the conference by his special assistant on matters affecting the nation's economy, John R. Steelman.

Mayor Curley Loses Battle In Court

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—Mayor James M. Curley of Boston today lost his last-ditch battle for supreme court reversal of the verdict sending him to prison for six to 18 months as a war fraud conspirator.

The high tribunal rejected by a 7 to 1 vote a plea that it reconsider its June 2 refusal to review Curley's conviction.

Hoover Warns U. S. On Foreign Gifts And Loans

Former President Declares
Present Rate Will Wreck
American Economy

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—The Senate Appropriations Committee today reviewed a statement by Herbert Hoover in which the former President declared American economy will be wrecked if the United States continues the present rate of foreign gifts and loans.

Hoover recommended in a letter to Committee Chairman Bridges (R-N. H.) that future aid be rationed to non-Communist nations which would cooperate in rebuilding a peaceful world.

Danger To Civilization

The former chief executive told the group that "the greatest danger to all civilization" lies in the possibility that this country's economy would be impaired by drains which "criple our productivity."

He warned against U. S. "over-exporting" and declared: "Unless this one remaining Gibraltar of economic strength is maintained chaos will be inevitable over the whole world."

"The conclusion seems to me irrefutable that as the result of our rate of giving and lending we are over-exporting goods and cannot continue at such a rate with our present production and consumption without further evil consequences to our stability."

Taxpayers Bear Burden

Hoover said that the United States probably has become a debtor rather than a creditor nation with the taxpayers bearing the burden. He added:

"These gifts are an immediate burden on the taxpayer. The goods furnished under loans also must be paid for immediately while the repayments are deferred for years."

"This has a bearing upon our tax burdens. Including local government expenditures, they now amount to about 35 per cent of our national income. No free nation can continue at that rate for long without impairing its productivity."

Bridges had asked Hoover his opinion on the question of how much the United States could advance in foreign relief and loans without impairing its resources and could they be increased.

Marshall's Treaty Efforts Blocked By Soviet, Charge

WELLESLEY, Mass., June 16.—(INS)—Secretary of Navy Forrestal today charged Russia with blocking Secretary of State Marshall's efforts to write peace treaties with Germany and the Axis satellite nations.

Forrestal's assertion came in a speech prepared for delivery at Wellesley College graduation exercises. The cabinet member stressed the need for peace treaties, and said:

"Secretary Marshall did his best to attack these problems in Moscow last winter, but he was blocked by Russia. He will renew his efforts next November."

Forrestal declared that failure of the world to find peace in the past two years creates and aggravates fears of a third world conflict.

He added, however, that there are many indications that such fears are groundless and that the world can truly hope for future peace.

Forrestal asserted that among the hopeful signs are the United States' determined efforts to continue international cooperation through the United Nations and the freeing of India by Great Britain. But he added:

"At no time in history has there been a greater basis for a pessimistic and skeptical view of the future. Wherever one looks there is trouble and uncertainty. . . ."

WILDCAT STRIKE

DETROIT, June 16.—(INS)—A "wildcat" strike at the Chrysler DeSoto plant in Detroit halted production at two other Chrysler divisions today and idled about 5,500 workers.

Trailing in games, 9-6, Jimmy Gwin of the Oak street school, a calm, collected competitor for one only eleven years of age, made a run of five straight games to defeat John Henry Bell of Lincoln-Garfield Saturday in the Arena to win the county "mibs" title. The final score was 11-9.

Jimmy lagged due to a fine run

Twenty One Escape Plane Crash Injuries

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 16.—(INS)—Staff Sgt. Curtis M. Green was acclaimed as a hero today for helping three fellow crew members and 18 passengers escape without serious injury from the burning wreckage of an Army transport plane after a crash at the Godman Army air field.

Several of the passengers suffered burns and lacerations, but none of the injuries was serious. Green and another member of the crew remained in the burning ship and directed the others to safety through an escape hatch.

En Route To Kansas

The plane, en route to Fort Riley, Kan., from W. G. Wyman of the crashed yesterday shortly after taking off from Godman field where it had stopped for servicing.

After the take-off the pilot reported back to Godman field that his plane was in trouble and that he was returning.

The plane missed the runway by 200 feet, and the landing gear collapsed as it struck a stretch of dirt, sending the craft skidding and bouncing for 300 feet before it stopped and burst into flame.

Maj. Gen. W. G. Wyman of the Air ground forces who was in charge of the party declined to reveal the nature of the plane's mission.

Godman field authorities said that some members of the party later took off in another plane for Fort Riley.

Truman Vetoes Congress Tax Reduction Bill

Sends Message To Congress
Emphasizing His Stand
On Measure

VETO NOW AWAITS
CONGRESS ACTION
(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, June 16. —(INS)—President Truman today vetoed the four billion dollar GOP tax reduction bill as an unfair and unsafe measure favoring high income groups.

The chief executive declared in a veto message to Congress that tax reduction is not justified. He emphasized:

"Despite many gloomy predictions, there is no convincing evidence that a recession is imminent."

Increase Inflationary Pressure

He asserted that a tax slash would increase inflationary pressures. He added:

"If these pressures are long continued, and if essential readjustments within the price structure are long deferred, we are likely to induce the very recession we seek to avoid."

The house is expected to override the veto tomorrow, but the Senate, which acts on the veto Wednesday, is expected to sustain it.

Mr. Truman in refusing to approve the bill, asserted that reductions in income tax rates are not needed to permit necessary business and investment expansion.

He declared that liquid funds in the hands of corporations and individuals now total nearly 200 billion dollars.

Three-Point Program

The president outlined a three-point program for eventual tax readjustment. He called for:

1. Plans for a thoroughgoing revision of the tax system.

2. Reduction of the public debt to as great a degree as possible.

3. Reduction of prices as a barrier against inflation and depression.

Mr. Truman told congress that the tax reduction bill which would affect the incomes of 48 million Americans is "the wrong kind of tax reduction, at the wrong time."

Blame Politics For Truman Veto

President Badly Advised Declares Chairman Of Committee Writing Tax
Bill

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—Ranking Republican leaders today termed President Truman's veto of the tax reduction bill "cold blooded politics" and called on Congress to override the chief executive's action.

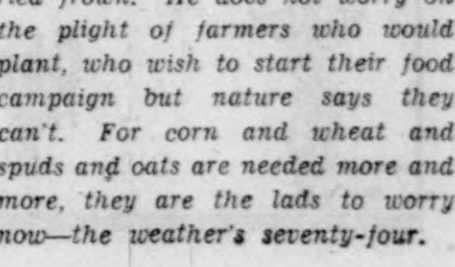

Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, which wrote the tax measure, declared that Mr. Truman "is badly advised" and "demonstrates a sad lack of understanding of the need of our economy."

GOP National Chairman Carroll Reece said the veto committed the Truman administration to continued support of "the tax and tax and spend and spend and elect and elect" philosophy of the New Deal. Reece said:

"That philosophy was repudiated by the American people last November, and I am confident it will be repudiated again and even more emphatically in 1948."

"The American people have determined that there will be no fifth time."

Dedicate Burial Plot To Veterans

Oak Park Cemetery Association Presents Large Plot To Veterans For Memorial Spot

Presentation and dedication of a large plot in Oak Park cemetery, for the burial of veterans of all wars, took place at the site of the plot in the northern extreme of Oak Park cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Gaston Post, American Legion, and Walter A. Kieler, commander of Neshannock Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Attorney Kieler presided at the impressive exercises, which were largely attended by veterans and their friends. Rev. Howard V. Sartell, pastor of the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle, a veteran of the late war, following which Mrs. James A. Rugh of the First Presbyterian church quartet sang "My Buddy".

The principal address was given by Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church, who expressed the hope that the plot would become hallowed ground, hallowed by the resting place of those who served their country in time of its gravest peril.

The benediction was given by Joseph Lane, chaplain of Neshannock Post, V. F. W.

county, Jimmy will now go to Wildwood, N. J., accompanied by Martin Lehnardt of the Lincoln-Garfield facility, to match his skill against other youngsters in the national play-offs which will be held on the ocean beach at the resort town from June 22-27.

Bell, along with David DeRosa of Croton school and Anthony Cialella of Pollock avenue school, will be taken to Forbes Field for a baseball game, June 22. Both these trips for the winner and runners-up are being financed by the Optimist Club of the city, who staged the tourney.

Wins Three To Advance

The Lawrence county champ won three games to advance to the finals. In his first round match he disposed of Edward Hallowich of Thaddeus Stevens, 5-1, defeated Johnny Moriel of Sts. Philip and James in the second round, 5-1, and won his semi-final match against Gerald Altman of Walmo school, 7-1.

John Bell defeated Louis Miller of Newport, 5-1, Craig McBurney of Arthur Magill, 7-2 and Anthony Cialella, 7-2.

The final matches found a field of 17 boys, the seven from Ellwood City not participating because they could not finish their eliminations in time.

Tourney Director Leonhardt praised the boys for their keen knowledge of the rules and their excellent sportsmanship throughout the tourney.

It is planned to hold the matches again next summer with even more schools sending representatives, it was stated by the Optimists.

ated but CIO officials failed to make an appearance. One union official said:

"Our present position is to notify all members of very uncertain working conditions without a contract."

The union contends their action is not to be considered a strike, walk-out or work stoppage but a "lockout" by the employers.

Communications men, cooks and stewards are chiefly affected because their contract with the ship operators expired at midnight but they are being supported by the NMU organization.

In addition, two other CIO Maritime Unions not involved in the disputes were expected to stage sympathy walkouts, bringing the total of strikers to an estimated 200,000.

Further support was looked for from the AFL Longshoremen's union, which, it gained, would cause almost complete stoppage of American shipping.

Scout Camporee Held At Campsite

Despite Inclement Weather 16 Patrols Stage Successful Two-Day Outing

Despite being plagued by incessant rains Friday and Saturday, the annual Boy Scout camporee held at the summer site along the Ship-perry Rock was a success.

Sixteen patrols, embracing 121 scouts, showed excellent improvisation by cooking and going about their other duties under the unfavorable conditions.

Nicholas Casillo, veteran scout of the county for many years, was the principal speaker at the Friday night campfire session which was held in the barn due to the rain. He gave the scouts a fine talk on conservation.

Dan Farrell district commissioner, acted as master of ceremonies at the Friday meeting, assisted by N. J. McCluskey and Keith Van Fossan. Joe MacKenzie of the explorer patrol of Troop 37 led the group singing.

Scouts were reminded today that the annual camping season begins June 29 at the site. There are still vacancies for the three-week season but boys are urged to register as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

ter, airline officials said, was that rescuers could locate only 48 bodies out of the 50 known dead. Searchers believed two of the bodies were disintegrated in the crash.

The mountain town of Leesburg was filled with relatives and friends of the dead. The recovered bodies were held at a temporary morgue in the Leesburg cemetery.

Sorrowing relatives claimed 13 of the victims Sunday.

The Capital Airlines, on a Chicago-to-Washington flight, crashed Friday night on the last peak that separated it from the nation's capital. J. H. Carmichael, Capital Airlines vice-president, said it was on its direct flight route when it crashed head-on into the mountainside. The crash shattered the plane into fragments, which later burned from exploding gasolene.

Cause of the disaster may never be known. Investigators on the spot reported that even the instrument panel was shattered into bits by the tremendous force of the crash.

By a curious twist of fate—even as the last bodies were being taken from the crash scene to Leesburg—an American Airlines DC-6 flew over the same route from Chicago to Washington Sunday to set a new unofficial commercial speed record for the trip. This plane left Chicago at 12:46 p. m. EST and landed in Washington one, 42 minutes and 23 seconds later.

The flight chopped 39 minutes off the previous fastest time. However, the new record will not be called official because the flight was not supervised by the National Aeronautics Association. The plane averaged 368 miles an hour.

"Deeply Concerned"
In creating a new air safety board Mr. Truman said he was "deeply concerned about this subject especially in view of the recent accidents of aircraft of our certified domestic air carriers". He declared "the development of our air transportation system has repeatedly been recognized as a matter of vital concern to our nation."

The president asked the board to study all "mechanical and human" factors in flying, the "recent series of accidents" and "the way in which new equipment, already predictable, must be keyed to mechanical aids and human capabilities."

Mr. Truman urged the board to report "as soon as possible and from time to time, recommendations as to any action or measures which it would deem appropriate in order to promote safety in air transportation." He said he would ask congress for safety legislation if such a step were necessary.

SENATOR TAFT PLANS TRIP WEST

on Sept. 12 or 13. At present his plans for this trip are indefinite. But friends indicate the itinerary is open so far as other engagements in the west are concerned.

Gov. Dewey's family trip in July will take him into four western states—Utah, Montana, Wyoming and Idaho—on a schedule permitting him to meet and be seen by voters and party leaders in that sector.

The 1944 GOP presidential nominee will attend the governors' conference at Salt Lake City, then tour the Yellowstone National Park area and wind up as a guest of Sen. Robertson (R) Wyo., at the Frontier Day celebration in Cheyenne on July 24 and 25. Dewey will spend 10 days in the west after leaving the governors' meeting.

Before traveling west, Taft will spend a month's vacation at Murray Bay, Canada, for years the Taft family's summering spot.

MEDICAL Meetings

ENCOURAGE Incentive FOR IMPROVEMENT

DOCTORS ARE BETTER DOCTORS. Hospitals are better hospitals, because of Medical Meetings. The practice of medicine is being constantly improved through this interchange of the findings of research and experience.

Lives are being saved by these constant meetings, conferences, clinics and consultations. Discussions from such meetings are published in Medical Journals, for further study, and for the information of those unable to attend. This urge for improvement—that's the ingenuity and progress of Medicine in America.

Opportunity and incentive to get to the top, through honest study and hard work... that's America! Attending Medical Meetings is hard work, sandwiched between other duties of a busy Doctor, but conscientious, progressive physicians consider it a duty to patients to attend local, state and special clinical meetings.

For the sake of keeping the level of American health the best on earth, let's see that politicians do not kill the incentive for constant improvement.

CHAPEL SCENE OF BERRY-HAWK VOWS

Wallace Memorial chapel, Westminster College, was the scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock of Miss Eleanor Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Glenn Berry, of 117 Hazelcroft avenue, and Roger H. Hawk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hawk, of the New Wilmington road.

Two large bowls of white peonies against a background of trailing ivy, ferns, palms and mockorange formed the setting at the altar for the candlelight ceremony. Dr. R. F. Galbreath officiated in the presence of a large gathering of guests.

The bride wore a wedding gown of ivory faille with an off-the-shoulder neckline outlined by a fold of the material below the yoke of illusion, and below a small bustle the full skirt ended in a short circular train. Her Belgian net veil fell from a Juliet band edged with seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis surrounded by a white net ruffie and a lace-trimmed handkerchief given to her by her great-grandmother on her wedding day.

Mrs. John Davis, of Knoxville, Tenn., maid of honor and bridesmaids, Mrs. H. A. Holschuh, of New York City, Mrs. E. J. Neff, of Wooster, O., Mrs. William Comstock, and Miss Gladys Henderson, of Bolivar, were gownned alike in gowns of rose faille with matching Juliet band headresses and veils. Earl H. Hawk served his brother as best man and ushers were James G. Berry, Jr., Robert Abraham Crowe, John Wilson, and Darryl Gould.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Jean Myers, of Sharon, sang "Thine Alone" and "Through the Years" with Miss Helen Francis, of New Wilmington, sorority sister of the bride, at the organ.

Following the ceremony guests were received on the lawn of the Manse where refreshments were served from a tea table in the summer house. White roses and white delphinium, a garland of orange blossoms and smilax decorated the bride's table.

Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carr, 714 Carlisle street, and Anthony E. Ostrowski, 537 Chestnut street, Meadville, Pa., son of Mrs. J. Ostrowski, of Williams street, this city, and the late Mr. Ostrowski.

Before the altar decorated with bouquets of all white flowers, vows were exchanged in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and guests of the young couple. Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor, officiated using the single ring ceremony.

The bride was attractive in a smartly styled pouf blue crepe street length crepe dress, the neckline and short sleeves edged with a dainty band of eyelet ruffling and the belted waistline featuring three tiers of accordion pleats in front to the hemline. Her hat of white horsehair matched her elbow-length gloves and accessories. A single white tipped orchid in a shoulder corsage, completed her ensemble.

Miss Norma Beltram, this city, as her only attendant, wore an ashen-of-roses crepe dress, street length, with white accessories and a corsage of pastel flowers.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Kathryn Nesle Allen, organist, played softly strains of "I Love You Truly" and a 15-minute prelude of nuptial music including "The Lord's Prayer."

IN BLACK AND WHITE

Having already rejected a British protest touching the same matter, the Soviet government was not regarded as likely to honor America's request for an impartial inquiry into affairs in the Balkans. Nevertheless the State Department notes served the purpose of showing in clear outline how Russia violates her pledge and of laying the basis for possible action by the United Nations.

To those who still think that the Soviet has no sinister designs on any other nation and is the friend of peace, a study of the United States notes on Hungary and the statement on Bulgaria is recommended. Therein Russia is charged with "a most flagrant interference in the affairs of Hungary" and with taking steps in "complete disregard of both the spirit and letter of the Yalta accord."

These are harsh phrases and not ordinarily used in diplomatic conversations. They would not now be used if the American government were not thoroughly convinced of their truth and if it did not believe that the time had come for stern measures.

No man can safely predict what will happen next or in the reasonably near future, but it does seem certain that the Soviet will not change its course until it runs headlong into American force and influences as expressed through material assistance to Greek and Turkey.

That conflict might provide a genuine crisis and constitute the challenge which President Truman has said the United States is determined to meet.

EMPLOYMENT GAINS

Instead of continuing the minor decline that showed up in April, the employment curve in May took an upward jump and reached an all-time high in terms of civilian jobs. At the same time, reports indicate that retail sales are holding up better than expected. Consequently some government analysts—who have flunked on every economic guess since the war—are now reported to feel that forecasts of a recession were at least premature.

They appear to have good reason for this conclusion, in spite of their past score. Not including the 1,470,000 in the armed services, 58,330,000 Americans were working for pay last month. This is an impressive and encouraging figure. There have been recent periods when total employment is higher—in July and August of 1945 and 1946—but these months should not be compared with May, 1947.

Employment is usually at a peak during July and August when the crops are being harvested. Most significant, the usual spring rise in agricultural employment this year accounted for only part of the May increase. Of the 1,500,000 added, 500,000 were in non-farm lines.

The other side of the picture, unemployment, also looked better during May. Unemployment fell by 450,000, leaving the total a little under 2,000,000—and that is close to the practical minimum. These statistics indicate that a possible adjustment period has been postponed and may not be too disturbing when it does come.

STREAMLINING

Government reorganization in Washington proceeds apace, though the pace is not so rapid as it might be. Congress is now considering three plans for streamlining the executive branch, submitted by the President last month in accordance with the terms of the Reorganization Act.

One plan would continue wartime groupings in a number of agencies whose lack of coordination proved too cumbersome under the severe test of war needs. Another would place the United States Employment Service and the wage-hour branch under the Department of Labor. A third would retain the centralized control of housing which existed during the war.

A peculiarity of proposals made under the Reorganization Act is that they do not die if one branch of Congress rejects them. Both must act. The House, indeed, has already voted to reject the second plan, but under the law the plan still becomes effective 60 days after submission unless it is also rejected by the Senate. If the Senate neglects to act within that time, the reorganization order will automatically take effect.

When such plans are rejected, it is usually because Congress suspects that the need for efficiency is being used as a cloak for other purposes of which Congress disapproves. Certainly, regrouping bureaus that should be abolished is not conducive to economy. Critics of the great, sprawling bureaucracy in Washington are on firm ground when they take the position that the way to cut down is to eliminate, not consolidate.

The President when he submits reorganization plans, should not try to put over any fast ones.

Those who insist on talking about the weather seem to have something this year.

How is that Truman drive to expugn communists from the government payroll progressing? Are there any expungees?

State Police Say:—

You must learn to respect speed. If you are traveling at 30 miles an hour and hit a car approaching at 30 miles an hour, you get the impact of hitting a stone wall at 60 miles an hour. If you are speeding along at 60 miles an hour it takes you 251 feet on dry pavement to stop. That's almost a city block. At lower speeds your chances of survival in an emergency are far greater.

Washington Calling

Speed Is Needed

On Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON, June 16.—One commodity that cannot be bought with all the dollars in the world is time. And time is running out very fast.

Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, who as much as any single individual has carried the load of our present foreign policy, says we need an inventory of our resources. We need to determine what we can do toward restoring peace and security to a broken world. It is impossible, as Vandenberg points out, to deal with a series of "unanticipated crises, one by one."

At the same time, however, we must examine without fear or prejudice the nature of the crisis which is coming on with such a rush. We must try to understand the speed with which events are crowding in.

Must Move Quickly
If we are to have an inventory, then we must move quickly. The facts and figures are available both as to resources and money. The task is to put them together with skill and perception so that we can see at a glance what we can do.

There has been talk of a special session of Congress in the fall. So far this seems to be chiefly newspaper talk. When you put it up to party leaders in House and Senate, they look vague and reply that no one has discussed with them the necessity of such a session.

Let's assume that there will be a session about November 1. The President and Secretary of State

WHY PLAY RUSSIA'S GAME?

If we are going to deal with facts rather than theories, why should we not look France some money? If France has ruled with a hard hand, he might have found it necessary; the record of the so-called Loyalists in the civil war, one of rapine, torture, wholesale murder and destruction, may not justify too much leniency. In any case, Spain's government is primarily a matter for Spain's people, rather than for the United States.

The recent announcement that no loans should be made to Spain as long as Franco is in power, appearing the same day as the House sanctioned the Four Hundred Million Dollar loan to Greece and Turkey, puts us in a very inconsistent position.

The admitted purpose of these loans is to help the two countries economically and militarily to head off Communism. We are taking this chance to block the Russians.

Two Distinctions
It so happens that the Franco government has two distinctions. It is the only government in Europe which has not received copious aid from the United States. It is the only certain buffer against Communism in Western Europe. France for months has been wobbling and election shows Communist gains; at this time the whole economy is disrupted because Communist members were dismissed by the cabinet and the Reds are conspiring for a revolution. Once France succumbs Belgium is likely to follow. Whatever the nature of Franco's government, it has not reduced itself to begging. Whatever Franco's

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

GUARD AGAINST HOME SICKNESS

Most children don't have the privilege of attending a summer camp. Excepting relatively few of the underprivileged children sent or helped to go to camp, by service clubs, churches, and other organizations, only those whose parents can afford the cost may go. Fortunately the Y, Scouts and the like make camping available to a limited number of children at very little cost.

But many children of the well-to-do, who greatly need the education which camp life can give, don't go because they are tied too close emotionally to the home, the very thing camp attendance can help correct.

A Good Camp
If you can afford to send your son or daughter to a well-conducted camp, and he doesn't want to go because he dreads being away from home and strangers, tell him nonchalantly when and where he will enter camp. Do no coaxing, have no argument. If, from earlier experiences he knows that your word is dependable he will accept the announcement as final and inextorable.

Having selected the camp carefully, trust to the director for working out with you the details. Whether to go with the child to camp when it opens, whether to visit him at camp, or how often, should rest almost wholly with the director.

You can help inoculate your child against homesickness if up

ATLANTIC CITY—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, former Chief of U. S. Occupation Forces in Germany: "I do not think that war with Russia is inevitable. At least, war in the next five to ten years is not within the realm of possibility."

From Me To You

By MESEALL

A lot of down hearted people this week . . . those who are now taking that most awaited vacation . . . and look . . . no sun. Rain is all anyone sees, feels and hears . . . and that isn't all the rain is spoiling . . . what about the men and women on whom we depend for our food . . . it is spoiling their chances of planting a decent crop that will mature in time for fall harvest.

But in spite of the rain . . . meetings are still held . . . and some of them become very uninteresting, especially when a windjammer takes the floor and forgets that he is not running a filibuster down at Washington. In Pittsburgh they have a cure for long-winded boys . . . When a person gets up to talk in a meeting he is limited to three minutes . . . and if he runs over the time limit he is fined so many dollars for each minute . . . in some cases running up to fifty dollars a minute. Now friends that is really a mighty fine system . . . and it could well be adapted right here in New Castle.

So you had a fine day yesterday . . . we are talking to you who were in the role of KING . . . Fathers who yesterday took over and ran the ranch . . . King, some liked to be called . . . yes King For A Day . . . How did it all work? Did anyone have an experience that might cause some of the other fathers to wince . . . Was yesterday worth waiting a whole year for.

There were many who yesterday celebrated their first Father's Day . . . and many of these many were sure excited and well pleased with themselves. But give 'em time . . . and when the off-spring grows up to the age of questions, then through the tough age . . . on through the growing stage of all legs . . . high school graduation and then college or out into the world . . . All this sprinkled with falls, bumps, broken bones and a heartache here and there . . . Then Father's Day really takes on a meaning that can't easily be forgotten.

The little poem that we used last Saturday carried a thought that should be remembered every other day of the year . . . in fact people should be more careful . . . especially parents when raising children.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

These are the days of house guests.

Everybody who has a home in the country—particularly if it's only a nice automobile ride away from the city—all of a sudden discovers how many friends he has.

Most of those "friends" never came near us during the winter, but now that the sun is high and the flowers in bloom, all of us country bumpkins become dears and darlings and how nice it is to see you and how well you look.

I am sure that all that sudden friendship has nothing to do with the fact that there are a few bottles in the pantry, ice cubes in the refrigerator, a home-cooked meal free-of-charge and a cool brook by which to sit.

Some of the guests stay overnight, others for a whole weekend. I know they love us dearly and, in addition, accommodations in our house are free and much less crowded than in most summer hotels.

Don't misunderstand me, however. We like house guests. My wife is particularly fond of those who don't help with the dishes and leave all the dirty work to her when they leave.

And I—well, I learn a lot about human nature from house guests.

For instance: We had some friends over this weekend. We have known them for years and we know most of the people they know.

So, in strictest confidence, they told us a lot of things about a lot of people.

We had to promise not to repeat a single word about that rumor, known only to a very few close friends and relatives that Mr. and Mrs. X were about to get a divorce because Mrs. X had discovered that Mr. X was having an affair with his secretary.

And we pledged ourselves to keep it an absolute secret that Mr. Y comes home drunk quite often these days and abuses his wife sometimes awfully.

Furthermore—and this is also strictly confidential—it is a shame how the Z's live way above their income and owe almost everybody in town.

It wouldn't surprise our friends a bit if Mr. Z went into bankruptcy any day now and what will poor Mrs. Z and the little children do?

I didn't get a chance to read my Sunday papers until today and there, in one of them, I saw a little bit of wisdom.

"Remember," it said, "that he who goesips to you will also gossip about you."

When we took our friends to the station last night the last thing they said was "Now, please, don't say a word of what we told you to anybody. We wouldn't have told you what we did if you weren't such good friends and if we didn't have absolute confidence in you."

Our friends are going to spend next weekend with the Q's. I bet our ears will be burning.

DOES COMMENCEMENT INVITATION NECESSITATE GIFT?

"We have received a commencement invitation from one of our neighbors. We cannot attend. Must we send a gift? Please give me the correct form for introducing our Pastor to relatives and friends."

Must sympathy be offered individually to the entire family of the deceased? If so, what should be said to each? (4) Is "thank you" the correct reply?

Answer: (1) While there is no obligation to send a gift, such as there is in the case of an invitation to a wedding reception, it is a graceful gesture to send some small memento to the graduate.

(2) It is not incorrect to introduce a woman to a priest or a minister nor is it a breach of etiquette to introduce him to her. A higher dignity of the church, such as upward of a Monsignor of the Catholic Church or upward of a Bishop in the Protestant Church should have women presented to them.

(3) When you call on the family, offer your sympathy to the closest relative of the deceased, such as a husband or a wife, or on a daughter. It is not necessary to go to each member individually. There isn't much more one can say other than "I'm very sorry," or something equally unaffected.

(4) The reply "Thank you; it's very kind of you" or any other natural expression that comes to mind is entirely correct.

Question: Kindly tell me what is my correct signature and the proper name for me to use on my daughter's wedding announcements. I have been a widow for many years. My name is "Mary S. Smith." My husband's was "Martin J. Smith."

Answer: Your signature should be always: Mary S. Smith; never sign "Mrs." Your form of address, as well as the name on your daughter's formal wedding announcements and invitations is: Mrs. Martin J. Smith. A widow retains her husband's full name, exactly as before his death. This she should use until she remarries.

Tour Of South America By President Is Urged Revival Of Good Will By Mexico Visit Cited Senator Tydings May Be No. 2 On Dem Ticket

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Look for revival of talk about President Truman planning to visit some of the nation's sister American Republics during the coming recess of Congress. The chief executive at present is in no mood to discuss the matter, but many Latin-American experts believe that such a journey would be advisable.

The recent exchange of visits between Mr. Truman and President Aleman of Mexico have done so much to revive the good will built up between the two countries that observers believe the program should be extended. They note that the presidents of most of the Latin-American countries paid visits to the United States during the war. It would be perfectly proper for Mr. Truman to return the calls.

As an added argument, they point to the fact that there has been much handshaking along the borders of Uruguay, Brazil and Argentina among the chiefs of state of these countries. Merely to maintain American prestige, it is argued, Mr. Truman should extend his travels.

As it is, Argentina stands to gain great prestige in the orbit she considers her own, while United States influence in the area may diminish unless the president finds it possible to journey there.

The Capitol TAFT STOCK RISES—Colleagues of Senator Robert A. Taft (R), Ohio, GOP Senate policy chairman, say his stock has risen as a result of his deft manipulation of the labor bill through the Senate and the Senate-House conference.

Taft got pretty much what he wanted. He was able to convince House Labor Committee Chairman Fred A. Hartley, Jr. (R), New Jersey, that the only way to get new labor legislation—either by presidential acceptance or by overriding a veto—was to adopt the Senate bill.

The Ohioan smoothed out a number of rough spots. While Hartley went along on the idea of moderating the bill, Rep. Clare E. Hoffman (R), Michigan, flared up over the House "surrender."

House conferees also were angered by news stories emphasizing the "yielding" by their group. Taft then was reported to have pounded the table and declared that if the conference so instructed him he would make no statements to the press on developments.

However, Taft warned that "leaks" would occur, and said that if he made any statements they would be clear and accurate.

Both House and Senate members of the conference committee agreed that Taft had done a good job and strengthened his position as a 1948 presidential possibility.

These political veterans said Taft's success more than offset his earlier loss of ground, including his failure to hold the Senate labor committee in line on several tough provisions.

TYDINGS FOR VICE PRESIDENT?—There are whisperings these pre-campaign days of a vice presidential bid in Maryland and southward for the current "favorite son" of the Free State, Democratic Senator Millard Tydings.

When the Democrats hold their national convention next year, the Maryland delegation, and several other delegations from Dixie, will be talking Tydings harder than ever.

Backers of the lanky and eloquent Marylander point out that he would be a geographical and political balance for President Truman, who is certain to seek to succeed himself in the White House. They say that in an era of world unrest, when preparedness is the keynote, the solidly Tydings would be an impressive running mate for Mr. Truman.

Tydings, a senior member of the new armed services committee, was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross in World War I. Politically, he is a middle-of-the-road, a restrained internationalist, and a powerful orator who uses words as a surgeon uses a scalpel.

So—do not be surprised if the Maryland whippers become increasingly audible and mount into a roar by the time the Democratic gavel raps next year.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

British Foreign Secretary Bevin's pious hope that an international will for peace eventually may bring into being a super world parliament dedicated to progress instead of battle steered world attention today toward a problem whose sheer complexities cry for an early solution.

It is that of a practical and acceptable international language. For it is as certain as daybreak that linguistic difficulties comprise a formidable barrier to understanding among peoples as well as nations.

There are many who believe that the English tongue, with certain essential emendations, is the logical choice.

Esperanto Lacking
Esperanto, like any artificial language, has not taken appreciable hold, possibly because it lacks the deep roots.

French has been losing its long-held place as the language of diplomacy since the end of the first World War for a wide variety of reasons, not the least of which is the fact that English is the mother tongue of 300 million inhabitants of the globe.

German as an international medium of exchange lost ground when Adolf Hitler in a typical aberration reverted to the old German Gothic which is an eye-strain for even the most accomplished linguists.

Russian, like Greek and the Slavic languages as well as the Hebrew and Arabian, to say nothing of the Chinese, presents a strange picture to western eyes.

But it may safely be assumed that a Chinese scholar able to master the 2,400 painstaking and willowy symbols of his ancient tongue would have little difficulty in memorizing

Winston Churchill, perhaps the greatest of all internationalists in his declining years, once confessed that he was a poor classical scholar in an address upon receiving an honorary degree. But he spoke for Shakespeare, the Magna Charta and the Declaration of Independence when he said:

"I should leave it to the clever lads to know Greek and Latin. I should wish an English boy who did not learn English well, and I should whip him hard."

Assurances are in from Britain that the empire is far from extinct. For sheer drama, nothing beats a brisk protest by the dear departed, sitting up at its own wake—Grand Rapids Press.

Governor Vetoes Plan To Display State Documents

Loan Of Historic Documents For Tour Of Nation Not Approved By Duff

HARRISBURG, June 16.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff refused today to sanction display of historic Pennsylvania documents, including the original charter to William Penn, on the "freedom train" slated to tour the United States.

The chief executive vetoed legislation to authorize loan of historic documents to the "freedom train" because he believed the documents might be irreparably damaged during the year-long tour to be conducted by the federal government.

Duff suggested that a facsimile, acceptable as an exhibit, would serve the purpose of acquainting Americans with their country's background.

"While I am in accord with the purpose of the excursion to enlighten the people as to our national history, I cannot agree to the release of the original Penn charter to this end," Duff explained. "Since 1682 this precious document pertaining to the history of Pennsylvania has never been out of our possession."

"It is doubtful if the charter now could very well stand the exposure and vibration occasioned on such a journey without irreparable damage being done to it. The Liberty Bell on its last trip was considerably marred, not through vandalism of any sort, but primarily because of the rigors of the journey."

The charter and other documents are in the care of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission.

Non-Operating Railroad Unions To Make Demands

CHICAGO, June 16.—(INS)—Representatives of 17 non-operating railroad unions will open negotiations with railroad officials in Chicago next Wednesday for a 20 per cent an hour wage increase.

Railroad officials said the wage increase would boost pay rolls by $24 million dollars and pay roll taxes by 44 millions for a total of $68 millions.

The non-operating unions, including shop, maintenance, clerical and other workers not engaged in the actual operation of the railroads, represent a membership of about one million employees.

Demands of the five operating unions, representing 350,000 train, engine and yard service workers, were expected to be served on the carriers by Friday.

We Americans do not like Fascism any more than Communism, because both represent dictatorship. But while we are spending hundreds of millions in Greece and Turkey to forestall Communism, what consistency is there in our constant nagging of Spain, which already is a substantial barrier to Communism? Why try to stop Russia on the Adriatic and Mediterranean and Dardanelles, when encouraging her designs on Gibraltar?

We explain our Greco-Turk aid by saying that it is essential to our own future security. If this is true, how important is it to protect ourselves against Russian domination of Spain? Even if we are helping to protect the British "life line" as some skeptical persons assert, isn't it just as vital to protect it at Gibraltar as in the Dodecanese?

Marshall put before the lawmakers the imperative need for a five-year program, at $5,000,000,000 a year, to restore Europe. Let's suppose some more and suppose that Congress acts with a minimum of delay, adopting the administration program and sending it to the White House on December 15. (Admittedly, this is getting into the realm of fantasy.)

Close To Deadline
Even with this express-train speed—measured by government standards—we shall be perilously close to a deadline. The dollars will run out in Great Britain and in Western Europe shortly after the first of the year. That means shipments from this country will be greatly curtailed. Far more important, it means that the whole effort of rehabilitation will, for the moment at least, come to a standstill.

This will take place after six months of uncertainty. If France and Italy still survive as free nations, it will be by a close margin. In the next six months the Communists throughout Europe, acting under leaders trained in Moscow, will exploit every opportunity for sabotage and disruption. And the opportunities will be manifold.

Our tempo is, to use a charitable word, leisurely. President Truman's message calling for $400,000,000 for Greece and Turkey was delivered on March 12. Three months were required to approve the program and name an administrator—and this for a program so small in comparison to needs.

The newly named administrator, former Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska, is now in Washington. He had to be called off from a responsible job in the civil administration of Germany to take this post.

Getting "Briefed"
Griswold, who has never been in Greece, is in Washington getting "briefed" on his extremely difficult and complicated assignment. He is picking the immediate assistants who will accompany him.

The first pair of shoes and the first sack of wheat are still to reach Greece under the program. The same thing is true of the general relief provided in the $350,000,000 appropriation adopted by Congress. The timetable for the latter measure was even more prolonged. The machinery for providing the relief is only just now being set up.

If Congress acted on an over-all program for Europe in December 1946 many weeks would go by before it could be implemented. A major obstacle is in persuading able men to take responsible positions, as was proved again on the Greek-Turkish program.

There may not be time enough. That is the reality which no one is quite facing up to. We have already squandered so much of that commodity without price. We helped along the squandering process by such senseless acts as abruptly chopping off the lend-lease pipeline the moment the shooting war had ended.

In his statement, Vandenberg spoke of the need for the "prompt creation" of a bipartisan council to advise the president on a master plan for rehabilitation. He spoke of the "difficult national decisions which we inescapably confront." We cannot delay those decisions much longer. The hands of the clock are moving on toward midnight of the brief day that is left to us.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

until the camp opens he will spend a few nights or week ends with some friends away from home and will mingle pretty freely at fun with many other children of his age in the neighborhood.

Don't Bring Child Home
Should your child at camp develop strong homesickness don't bring him home unless the director advises you to do so, except for medical reasons. Leaving camp for good just to be home again may be very disastrous to the child's mental health, personality and character.

Every parent planning to send a son (or daughter) to camp should read "Your Son Goes to Camp," by F. W. Holbein, to be had of Association Press, New York, for 15 cents. Mr. Holbein, a very successful junior high school principal, with wide experience as camp counselor and director, and at training such, writes with common sense and authority. He is also co-author with John A. Ledlie, of "Camp Counselor's Manual" (Association Press).

Whereas most camps have based their program chiefly on recreation, I feel very sure that most camps of the future will emphasize work far more. Indeed, a great many children, especially of the well-to-do, are most in need of camp experience of rigid discipline and hard work. The CCC camp had many features worthy of emulation. Yes, many parents who can easily afford to pay to send a child to a summer camp will in the future be choosing one in which real work with the hands will share half or more of the time with recreation; a camp, moreover, in which the discipline is very strict.

Searching Party Finds Boy's Body

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—(INS)—A searching party of police and neighbors found the body of four-year-old Larry Reid in a water-filled hole in the Mayfair section of Philadelphia today.

The hunt was begun at 11:30 a. m. Sunday a few moments after Larry disappeared while at play. Headlights from an emergency patrol car picked out the child's form lying face down in a building excavation.

Police said the Reid boy apparently had stumbled into the hole but said a full investigation of the case was being made.

The victim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reid, were near collapse after the body was recovered. They have three other children—Kathleen, 17; Geraldine, 14, and Eugene, 13.

Westinghouse Physicist Explains
Annoying Dust Patterns On Walls Of Home

PITTSBURGH, June 16.—(INS)—A Pittsburgh scientist has come up with an explanation for those annoyingly dirty patterns on walls and ceilings.

Gaylord W. Penney, inventor of the air-cleaning precipitator and Westinghouse Electric physicist, has been conducting experiments on the problems of dust and dirt elimination in homes.

The tests have shown, Penney said, that "those annoying patterns that show up on every nail head and lath" are the result of warm, dust-laden air moving over cold surfaces.

Air, Laden With Dust

The physicist explained that during the winter the inside air is laden with microscopic dust particles too small to settle out of gravity. These are driven against colder portions of the walls—where the dust settles—and away from the warmer portions.

He added:
"The plaster between wooden laths is one of the coldest parts of the wall because it conducts away heat faster than the wooden strips that support it. As a result, the dirt particles stick uniformly to this cold surface, leaving the familiar striped pattern."

Nail Heads Conduct Heat

"Likewise, nail heads conduct heat out of the room and present a cold 'target' for the fast-moving dirt particles."

Insulation of the walls to insure a uniformly warm surface will eliminate such patterns, Penney said. Radiant, or panel, heating, will also do the trick, he added.

FRESH BLOOD A MUST FOR FREE ENERGY

Do you feel like you are tied to a drag every time you try to do something? If so, don't let a low blood count hold you down when you may release vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Lawrence Chapter Of D. A. R. Has Flag Day Program-Tea

LAWRENCE CHAPTER OF DAR. Lawrence chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution gathered for its impressive annual Flag Day program in the home of Mrs. DeGrimm Renshaw, East street, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Flanking the speakers stand at the foot of the staircase in the large living room, were the American flag and the chapter flag in the D.A.R. colors of blue and white.

Speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. George Beattie of Cleveland, who spoke on "Birthstones". She was introduced to the assemblage by Mrs. E. B. Russell, chairman of the hostess committee. Mrs. Beattie's talk drew its inspiration from the history and folklore surrounding the custom of wearing special jewels according to one's birth month. As accompanying illustration she displayed an array of lovely jewels, both set and unset. "Jewels," she emphasized, "are the flowers of the mineral kingdom and are blossoms that never fade."

Mrs. Henry E. Golder, newly elected regent, presided. To open the program Mrs. Ray Robinson read the address of Mrs. Julian Young Talmadge, president-general of the National D.A.R. An eye-witness account of the colorful banquet at the national convention in Washington, D. C., recently was given by Miss Katherine Foulke.

Musical highlight of the program was a group of three songs by Mrs. Edward O'Neill who sang "Irish" by Wolf, "An Irish Love Song" by Lang, and "Oh Love But a Day" by Gilberte accompanied at the piano by Edwin Lewis.

Mrs. Fred L. Rentsch, who has been elected vice president of the National Flag Day association, was introduced and spoke briefly remarking on how pleasant and fitting it was for the chapter to

LEASURE-GREGOR CHURCH WEDDING

Before the altar of the Madison Avenue Christian church, Miss Anna Isabelle Leasure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Leasure, 814 West Washington street, became the bride of Edwin Hunt Gregor, son of Harry H. Gregor, 1120 Cunningham avenue. The ceremony was performed Saturday at 2 p. m. by Prof. Walter Biberich before a throng of friends and relatives.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Sarah Comstock, presided at the organ with nuptial selections and accompanied Mrs. Anna Ezzell who sang "Oh Promise Me" and Mrs. Dorothy Hickson who sang "I Love You Truly".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a gown of white satin which was form fitting and bustle back with long sleeves and a modified train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she wore a pearl necklace. Her bridal bouquet was of calla lilies.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Grace E. Barnhart, sister of the bride was attired in a blue crepe gown cut like that of the bride, with cap sleeves and lace mits. Bridesmaids Misses Doris Fleeger, cousin of the bride, and Mary Lou Gregor, sister of the groom, wore gowns of yellow marquisette and Peggy Shelters, cousin of the bride, and Edna Mae Gregor, sister of the groom, wore gowns of blue marquisette. All carried colonial bouquets with ribbons matching their respective gowns.

Francis Gregor, served his brother as best man with Lester and Albert Leasure, brothers of the bride, and George and Robert Gregor, brothers of the groom, as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for over 100 guests. Serving a delicious luncheon were Mrs. Lou Evans, Mrs. Blanche Smith, Mrs. James E. Leasure, Jr., Mrs. P. W. Leasure and Mrs. A. W. Leasure.

The newlyweds departed by motor for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls. On return they will reside for the present at the home of the groom's parents until their home is completed on Park avenue.

Golden Anniversary Services Concluded

Alliance Gospel Tabernacle Congregation Completes Fiftieth Anniversary Program

Week end services in the Alliance Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street, brought to a conclusion the Golden Anniversary services of the church. The week of celebration opened on Sunday, June 8, and came to a close with the service Sunday evening.

Dr. H. M. Shuman, president of the Christian and Missionary Alliance and former pastor of the Pearson street church, was the concluding speaker of the anniversary, speaking, Saturday evening, Sunday morning and evening.

The church leader in his closing address to the church on Sunday evening, chose one of the doctrinal points of the Christian and Missionary Alliance as his subject. Speaking on the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, he selected a text from Acts 1:10-11, which read in part: "this same Jesus shall come in like manner". Dr. Shuman portrayed some present day evidences of the soon return of Christ to the earth.

Quartet Sings
The church quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, Miss Esther Gibbons and Avery Rigby, Jr., sang during the Sunday evening service, "Jesus Only". Miss Pearl Gibbons accompanied at the piano.

On Saturday evening and Sunday morning, Dr. Shuman gave heart searching addresses to the congregation, in which he urged them to make certain of their position in the Christian life and ever be found ready to serve God in any capacity.

Throughout the week, early pastors and others who have gone out into home work were heard on the anniversary program. Speakers heard during the week were: Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Check Road Routes To Avoid Detours Auto Club Advises

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—(INS)—"Avoid unpleasant detours by checking the roads before starting a trip," advises the Keystone Automobile Club, pointing out that highway construction season is getting in full swing, necessitating reroutings of traffic.

"Difficulties can be avoided," said William A. Armstrong, manager of the club's traffic bureau. "If motorists take the precaution to check the routes they propose to use."

"Many construction projects are under way in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Maryland, Virginia, and Ohio, and some long detours are in effect, although in numerous instances traffic is maintained around the construction work."

Father's Day Gift Brings Tragedy

MISHAWAKA, Ind., June 16.—(INS)—A Father's Day gift of a rowboat brought tragedy today to the home of Leo Streich, 33.

The boat was presented to Streich yesterday by his sons, Charles, 14, and Paul, 12. Then the boys accompanied their father to the St. Joseph River off the Municipal Golf course at Mishawaka.

Paul rowed for a while as Charles and Streich watched from shore. Then Streich walked onto a footbridge for golfers and called for Paul to bring the boat to the bridge because he wished to row it.

As Streich stepped into the boat it capsized. Paul clung onto the side of the boat, but his father drowned.

Over 3,500 Vets In Farm Training

See Infant Program As One Of Biggest Boosts To Agriculture In State

HARRISBURG, June 16. — More than 3,500 veterans have already enrolled in the veterans agricultural training program despite the fact that the program has been under way for scarcely a year.

This program is known formally as "institutional on-the-farm training" but actually it means real work on the farm, as an employee or owner, with group classroom teaching at night and individual guidance during the day.

H. C. Fetterolf, chief of agricultural education, bureau of instruction, said that the veterans are being instructed by 135 full-time and 60 part-time instructors. He described the program as one of the finest things that had ever been accomplished in vocational agricultural education in Pennsylvania.

Does Much Good

"It is almost impossible to estimate the great amount of good to that Pennsylvania agriculture that will come from this program," Fetterolf said. "This can best be seen in the simple fact that in some individual counties as many as 150 to 200 new and productive farms have been started by these veterans with the guidance and educational aid of competent agricultural teachers. The only single retarding factor in the program is the shortage of expert agricultural teachers to meet the veterans' demands. This has resulted in a temporary bottleneck and we have a waiting list of 500 veterans who want this program. We hope to meet this situation by obtaining more teachers for part time work."

Central Christian Anniversary Ends

Final Services In Week's Program Are Conducted On Sunday At South Side Church

Long to be remembered will be the closing services of the Golden Anniversary of the Central Christian church, East Long avenue, held Sunday in the church.

Beginning in the Sunday school hour, when the assembly had a picture taken, as a memento of the occasion, the anniversary continued during the morning worship period, with a very large audience present for the service.

The morning worship period in charge of the pastor, Rev. James N. Rainey, who gave the invocation, brought back to the church, a former pastor, Rev. Jesse B. Porter of Ridgway, Pa. His address was preceded by a choir number, "The Lord's Prayer" sung by James Frost and the choir.

Rev. Porter addressed the celebrating church on the subject, "What Is Right With The Church?" He encouraged the congregation to continue on and to make further progress in the ensuing days.

Lord's Supper Observed

At the conclusion of the service, the Sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed. A memorial service was conducted for one of the deceased elders of the church, Fred Downs, who died in March. Many floral tributes were banked about the altar in tribute of those who had died.

The evening service was again in charge of the anniversary general chairman, Rev. Rainey, who conducted the opening devotions. The choir was heard in a special song, "The Challenge". The men's chorus also sang during the service, "When Jesus Comes Into Your Heart".

The closing address of the anniversary celebration was given by Rev. Porter, when he spoke on "Who Is On The Lord's Side?" Rev. Rainey pronounced the benediction at the conclusion of the service. During the evening service, Rev. Rainey was presented with a gift and a purse of money from the elders of the church. George Bauman made the presentation.

The committee which helped make the celebration the brightest days in the history of the church included: Rev. J. N. Rainey, general chairman; Frank Norris, chairman; Thomas Phelps, secretary; Howard and Sydney Zeigler, Elmer Glass, George and A. W. Bauman, Clifford Parks and Harry Glover.

School Enumerators Taking School Census

Accredited Enumerators Find That Fake Enumerators Have Been Working In City

When the annual school enumeration work was started in the city, the regularly accredited enumerators employed by the school district to do this work, found that fake enumerators had been at work in the city, gathering information probably for some advertising scheme.

This condition was found in the third, fourth and eighth wards. Those who are doing the work for the New Castle school district have credentials proving their identity. Superintendent of Schools Dr. Frank L. Burton stated today, and if there is any doubt they should be asked to show them.

Completing Plans For Sons Of Italy Convention Here

Final plans for the 19th state convention of the Sons of Italy will be made Sunday, June 22, when the general committee will meet with General Chairman B. J. Biondi. The details for the program will be finished and the program itself placed in the hands of the printer. At a meeting of the committee on Friday, June 13, Francis J. Augustine, chairman of the July 4 parade, said that he had a number of entries from other civic and fraternal organizations of the county and that he now had five bands pledged to march. The day's activities will close with an old time fireworks exhibition.

For the convention ball which will be held in the Cathedral, General Chairman Biondi has already placed three bands under contract. There will be continuous music for the dancers from the opening minute of the ball to the closing.

On Saturday, July 5, the first convention golf tournament will be held at Sylvan Heights golf course, the winner to be crowned state Sons of Italy champion. Fred Lombardo is the chairman of the tourney and has arranged to have play start at 9 a. m. EST in order to get all contestants over the course before dark.

Tear Down Signs On Boyles Field

It has been found that the signs which were placed at Boyles field, warning against Sunday baseball playing there, are being torn down by someone as soon as they have been put in place.

Action was taken by the school board at a recent meeting, barring Sunday baseball at the field, and signs to this effect were put in place but were torn down, Dr. Frank L. Burton, superintendent of schools, states.

Boyles field is school property, and anyone causing damage or vandalism there is subject to a fine of from $5 to $200, Dr. Burton states.

Lilienthal Sees Atomic Energy As Hydroelectric Aid, Not As Replacement

By SAM FOGG
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The employment of atomic energy to "supplement" but not replace hydroelectric power in the nation is foreseen by David E. Lilienthal, atomic energy commission chairman.

Lilienthal envisaged the role to be played by atomic power in the nation's economic and social life in recent testimony before a house appropriations subcommittee made public Friday.

He informed the committee that the development of atomic energy for power purposes might be developed within 10 or 15 years.

Lilienthal also announced that a medical review board is about to be set up to advise on the entire problem of atomic medical research and suggested that advisory groups should be formed to determine changes that may result in the social and economic life of the United States.

Asked whether atomic energy would make hydroelectric projects "obsolete," Lilienthal responded: "Electricity from atomic energy is more likely to supplement our general store of energy than to supplant any reasonably economical sources. . . there should be studies of the relative cost of the new sources of energy. It may be that atomic energy will apply first as an economic proposition in regions where other costs for alternative sources of energy are very high and it will gradually fit itself into the overall system."

Won't Supplant Others

"But it seems to me quite unlikely that atomic energy will supplant all other forms of energy, but it would keep the cost of other energy down."

Lilienthal complained that "un-cautious and some hysterical statements" had been made concerning the economic and social change in the United States in the atomic era. The commission chairman also spoke against too much centralization of atomic research in government laboratories as conducive to a kind of inertia. He asserted the development of fundamental knowledge and research "carried on in as many places as possible and treated as not the kind of information that needs to be held secure . . . would seem to be a way somehow of meeting the dilemma of trying to increase knowledge . . . and keeping ahead on the application of that knowledge in the field of nuclear weapons."

In a report submitted to the committee, Lilienthal declared eleven million 300 thousand dollars will be required to compete the initial FBI check of all commission employees. He estimated that a total of 43,000 employees involved in addition to a periodic turnover of workers average 1,000-a month.

At a subsequent hearing, Rep. Dirksen (R) Ill., suggested that twenty-five million dollars of the commission's budget should be earmarked for the study of the effect of radioactivity in curing cancer.

AAF To Develop Fastest Plane

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—The army air force announced plans for development of a supersonic plane with a top speed of 2,000 miles an hour and an altitude ceiling of more than 50 miles.

The AAF statement revealed that a contract for a "design study" of the plane, which has been designated the XS-3, has been awarded the Douglas Aircraft Co. of Santa Monica, Calif.

If the plane achieves its projected speed, it will travel three times faster than sound.

AAF said that Douglas has made 60 different design studies so far, ranging from a stubby, blunt nosed model to a long, slender fuselage that comes to a sharp, bullet point for the AAF. Ram-jet, rocket, pulse-jet and turbo-jet types of propulsive units have been studied as possible propellents, both singly and in combination.

The XS-3 is the third step in the AAF program of supersonic research. The first, the Bell XS-1, has powered flights; the XS-2 is now being built by Bell Aircraft at its Buffalo, N. Y., plant.

None of the XS planes are military aircraft. They will be employed solely as flying research laboratories.

To Seek Liquor Vote In Shenango

Petitions are being circulated in Shenango township asking the board of elections to place upon the ballot the question of alcoholic beverage licenses, in the September primary. The township presently has five retail licensed cafes and one hotel license.

The petition must contain the names of voters numbering 25 per cent of the highest number of votes cast at the last general election. After being circulated the petition will be presented to the board of elections.

FALLS TWO STORIES

CHICAGO, June 16.—(INS)—Second Deputy Fire Marshal John Haberkorn nursed only a slight wrist injury today after he fell two stories down an elevator shaft while leading firemen in fighting a $50,000 blaze at Albert's furniture house on Chicago's west side.

The fire which started late last night caused a dense smoke that drove 150 persons from adjoining apartments. The cause of the fire was not determined.

Automobile accidents increase 24 to 53 per cent in winter over summer.

COMFORTS FOR DAIRY HERD PAY DIVIDENDS

Cows respond to comfortable conditions during the hot days of summer as well as in winter time. County dairy farmers should make sure their herds have ample shade and fresh water.

A cow is not comfortable if she has to lie in the sun on a hot day. Also, it has been proved that when cows are subjected to high temperatures the rate of respiration increases with a resulting decrease in milk production. Plenty of fresh water is required to help the processes of digestion.

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 16.—(INS)—Electricians still are trying to explain this one:

Lightning recently struck an apartment house here. All electric lights which were turned on were burned out. Those not lighted were lit by the bolt of electricity.

FIVE-YEAR PLAN PRODUCES GREAT SCHOOLS OF FISH

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 16.—(INS)—Mighty schools of fish from little "classes" grow.

That was the feeling of Robert C. Buller, of Bellefonte, Pa., chief culturist of the state fish commission, as he tallied the number of fish taken from a small lake near the Keystone Ordnance works at Meadville.

Five years ago guards at the plant tossed a few sunfish and catfish into the lake.

Now they have multiplied to such an extent that already 37,000 of panfish have been removed from the lake for transplanting in other lakes and streams near Meadville, Buller said.

CABIN CRUISER LOCATED

ERIE, Pa., June 16.—(INS)—Fears that the 30-foot cabin cruiser, Mary Ann, may have been lost in a sudden squall on Lake Erie today were alleviated when the Coast Guard reported it had docked safely at Dunkirk, N. Y.

The cruiser, with five persons aboard, was unreported for several hours yesterday after a 50-mile gale lashed the lake. It was enroute from Conneaut, O., to Erie at the time.

Great Lakes ore carriers with 10,000-ton capacities can be loaded in 90 minutes, but it takes four hours to unload them.

Pittsburgh Truck Strike May Be Ended

PITTSBURGH, June 16.—(INS)—Possibility of an end in the near future to the strike of freight haulers that has tied up shipments in the Pittsburgh area for two weeks was seen today when the AFL teamsters agreed to a 17½-cent hourly increase offered by 25 operators.

Bernie C. Mazon, president of Local 249, did not reveal identity of the operators, but said he expected the contracts to be signed today.

Jet-Propelled Model Will Not Be Shown Here

Replica Scheduled To Fly At Model
Meet Explodes And Burns
In Test

It was learned today that the jet-propelled model plane, scheduled to be one of the features of the big plane meet at the airport June 22, will not be shown.

The novel plane, owned by members of the Sharon Eagles, exploded and burned during a test flight at Buhl Park, Sharon, last week. Joe Wagner of the New Castle "Small Planes" club, who will supervise the tri-state meet, reported that the tiny plane's engine caught fire due to the intense heat and completely destroyed the rest of the model.

Construction of a new fire-proof model has begun but it is not believed possible to have the new edition finished in time for the meet on June 22.

DEVICE ENABLES PILOT TO LIGHT AIRPORT LIGHTS

PORT WORTH, TEX., June 16.—(INS)—A device with which a pilot can turn on an airport's landing lights by radio was demonstrated in Fort Worth Friday by Vernon Mallory, a former Dallas radio engineer.

Mallory's invention also automatically selects the proper runway so the plane can land into the wind. He said the system was principally for small fields which do not maintain 24-hour service.

LESS "RAH RAH" MORE SAVVY ASKED BY CHICAGO PREXY

CHICAGO, June 16.—(INS)—Less "rah rah" team spirit and more academic savvy was advocated by President Ernest Cadman Colwell of the University of Chicago.

He told 1,115 graduates—the largest class in the university's 56-year history—that their university does not have this school spirit, but understands the spirit of the university to be the spirit of free inquiry, the faithful and unflinching pursuit of truth and knowledge.

Colwell described institutions with "school spirit" as having a creed full of absolute dogmas expressed in superlatives.

Entire Country, Not Just Forces Must Be Trained

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—Bernard M. Baruch on Friday warned that it is not the army that must be trained for the next war, it is the whole nation.

The "elder statesman" gave this warning in answer to tributes paid to him at the National War college when a bronze bust of Baruch was presented to the college.

High government officials, including Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of War Patterson, Secretary of Navy Forrestal, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, attended the presentation ceremonies.

Baruch warned that it is necessary for America to perfect "the marriage of political and military objectives."

He called upon regular officers in all branches of the service to assume their responsibilities as citizens during peace time. He said: "I present the implication that these war leaders are any less able or willing to discharge their duties in peace. I reject the theory that they think narrowly and rigidly in terms of war."

Average Person Knows Little Of Retail Meat Cuts

CHICAGO, June 16.—(INS)—Despite the 300-year history of meat handling in America, the average person still has a meager knowledge of individual cuts.

That was the opinion Friday of Redman B. Davis of the National Livestock and Meat Board who spoke at the organization's annual meeting in Chicago.

To substantiate his point, Mr. Davis cited a survey in which 23,623 persons in 39 states and Canada asked to identify 25 retail cuts of beef, veal, pork and lamb. He said: "Only one of every seven persons correctly identified all 25 cuts, and only about 50 per cent could identify the popular sirloin and porterhouse steaks."

Disclose New Secret Weapon

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, June 16.—(INS)—The new secret weapon developed by American, British and New Zealand scientists was disclosed today to be more controllable, simpler and cheaper to produce than the rival atom-bomb.

Described as an "alternative to the atom bomb", the undisclosed weapon was produced in an Auckland research center headed by T. D. J. Leech, professor of engineering at Auckland university college. Prof. Leech recently was named in the king of England's birthday honor list for his leadership in this research.

Governor Signs Four Bills; Veto Given Two Others

HARRISBURG, June 16.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff on Saturday signed four bills and vetoed two other measures including legislation which would have permitted local governments to tax state-owned property.

The tax measure, sponsored by Rep. David P. Reese Jr., (R) Dauphin, was vetoed because "the commonwealth cannot continue at the state level to expand the funds that it is paying to local communities for services they ought to render themselves and at the same time subject itself to taxation for its property in those communities for local purposes."

The governor also vetoed a bill which would have appropriated $5,000 for restoration and maintenance of the cemetery in Philadelphia containing the remains of William Crispin, first chief justice of the colony of Pennsylvania, and Thomas Holme, its first surveyor-general.

Lack of commensurate purpose did not "justify the expenditure of taxpayers' money," Governor Duff said.

He approved legislation which will make it unnecessary for ex-service-men in Pennsylvania to furnish service rank or serial number in connection with civil service examinations.

Other bills signed by the governor provided for leaves of absence with pay for certain employees paid on an hourly basis, disposition of records of the Pennsylvania Historic and Museum commission, and power to include municipal authority employees within the state retirement system.

RARE BOOK ADDED
MORGANTOWN, W. Va., June 16.—(INS)—The University of West Virginia added a 116-year-old book to its rare collection in the school's library at Morgantown.

The book, Chronicles of Border Warfare, was written by Alexander S. Withers, and was given to the university by Mrs. Charles C. Hunsacker, of Watson, W. Va.

More Than 825 Will Take Exams

HARRISBURG, June 16.—(INS)—Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Francis B. Haas announced that more than 825 persons will undertake the high school equivalent and pre-professional examinations to be given June 17-19 throughout the state.

The tests are particularly helpful to veterans whose education was disrupted by the war and to those whose secondary courses were not sufficient to qualify them for a profession or professional school, Haas said.

Others, who were unable to attend approved high schools, would be enabled to obtain equivalent recognition through the examination, he added.

Soviet Rejects Probe Demand On Hungary

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—The state department today acknowledged receipt of a Soviet rejection to the U. S.-British demand for a three power investigation of the recent pro-Communist coup d'etat in Hungary.

Lincoln White, a state department spokesman, said the note is being studied, but declined to predict what the next step will be. The United States note implied that the case might be carried to the United Nations.

However, it is anticipated that the department would issue a formal statement later commenting on the Soviet attitude which was set forth in a note from Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, acting chairman of the Allied control commission for Hungary.

Aside from rejecting the United States demand the communication was said to have accused the United States of assisting those who were involved in an Allied conspiracy against the Hungarian government.

Sunday, pictures of the Palestine tour were shown, while this evening, at 7:30 o'clock, films will be shown of the trip to Nigeria, Congo and other sections of Africa. Work in the leper colonies of Africa will be shown as well as the missionary efforts that are being carried on.

Rev. F. L. Ginocchi Ordained Priest

Local Man In Class Of Thirteen Ordained Sunday At St. Vincent's Seminary, Latrobe,

Impressive were the ordination services conducted in St. Vincent's Archabbey, Latrobe, Pa., Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, at which time, Rev. Fr. Francis Louis Ginocchi, of this city, was ordained to the holy priesthood.

Rev. Fr. Ginocchi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gennaro Ginocchi, 1008 Pollock avenue, was one in a class of thirteen to be ordained. Following the ceremonies, the young priest extended blessings to all his friends and relatives attending the services from New Castle.

Fr. Ginocchi was active in many circles, and was a member of St. Thomas Homiletic and Literary society, a member of the program committee, seminary choir and the Schola Cantorum.

A great occasion in the life of the young priest will occur on Sunday, June 22, when he will celebrate his first solemn high mass in St. Vitus church at 12 o'clock noon.

Former members of the parish will be officers of the mass: Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, archpriest; Rev. Fr. Nicholas Biondi, pastor of St. Philip Neri church, Donora, will be deacon; Rev. Fr. Richard Pauluse, of Ambridge, sub-deacon; Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso will be master of ceremonies.

Rev. Fr. Henry DeVivo, of St. Rita church, Connelville, will preach the sermon in Italian. Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Mastrangelo, of Sharpsburg will deliver the sermon in English.

A large number of local friends and relatives of Fr. Ginocchi's attended the occasion of his ordination on Sunday.

Parisian Metro Integral Part Of Life In City

Underground Subway System Links All Sections Of French Capital

PARIS, June 16.—(INS)—Are you fond of travelling? Well then, hop aboard the Paris subway, or "metro," as it is called here. For the moderate sum of four francs (just over three cents) you will be allowed to cover 100 miles underground, with occasional glimpses of the surface while you pass over the river Seine.

Whatever the distance, or number of stations, the price of your ticket will still be four francs, as long as you do not leave the train.

485 Trains Run Daily
Every day, 485 trains cover 120 kms., twelve times the distance between Paris and Rio-de-Janeiro.

Between Porte de Clignancourt and Porte d'Orleans, 176 million passengers travel in one year. At St. Lazare station, 370 thousand business men, working girls and office boys daily come out of their suburban train and dive into the "metro" which will take them to all corners of the French capital. The first train leaves its depot at 5:30 a. m., the last one runs at 12:30 p. m. And, how cool it is down below in summer, and how beautifully warm, it was, particularly last coalless winter, even at my station called "Glaciers" (ice-box).

'Metro' Sentimentally Regarded
The Paris "metro" has sentimental connections for every Frenchman: During the occupation, it was the scene of daily Gestapo arrests of hostages or Jews, or searches for weapons in the belief they would catch members of the Resistance. Every Parisian got a fiendish delight in cutting his ticket into a "V" shape, and either dropping it at the foot of a German soldier or smartly slipping it into his pocket during rush hours. That was when every Frenchman understood that the "metro" was the heart of Paris. Never say: "Parisians hate the 'metro'." Last year, they used it 1,585 million times.

UNION FIRE DEPT. TO MEET WEDNESDAY
Union Township Volunteer Fire Department will meet Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Union township high school, president, F. D. McPheeters, announces.

Asserts Truman

To Visit Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 16.—(INS)—The Rio newspaper O Globo said that President Truman will visit Brazil, probably in September or October.

Quoting "confidential" sources close to the foreign ministry, it said that Mr. Truman has accepted a Brazilian invitation and will time his visit so as not to conflict with the Rio conference on inter-American defense.

The article reported that the defense talks "will definitely be held between July 15 and July 30." It attributed its information to the same "confidential" sources.

THERE NEVER WAS A RIDE LIKE THIS!

No Car Designed Before the War Can Even Compete with the Ride You Get in a KAISER or a FRAZER

You be the judge! You have driven and ridden in a lot of cars. You know how they ride. Now, get in a KAISER or a FRAZER and compare the ride! You're in for a pleasant surprise. For all your present standards of riding quality will become obsolete before you have gone a mile! You will agree that no car designed before the war can even compete with the KAISER or the FRAZER—for there never was a ride like this! You drift over rough roads. You glide along the pavement. It's a horizontal ride—with the up and down travel removed.

It's not just a matter of spring design and shock absorbers. Power, brakes, and ease of steering, all play a part. So do superior roominess, extraordinary visibility and extra-low center of gravity—with all the weight of passengers between the wheels! But what's the use of telling you how it's done! You are interested in the ride. That can't be described. It must be experienced. So, before you buy any car, learn for yourself—compare the ride!

Supreme Court May Rule On Plea Of Boston Mayor

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(INS)—

The supreme court today at what may be its final session of the 1946-47 term may rule on a plea by Boston's Mayor James M. Curley for review of his 6 to 18 month sentence for war fraud conspiracy.

The high court announced a month ago that it would recess for the summer on June 16. It was, however, expected to extend the term for at least another week in order to dispose of some 32 argued cases that still await decision.

The high court refused on June 2 to hear Curley's plea for a reversal of his conviction and sentence on the fraud charge.

Curley was sentenced to 18 months in the Federal Reformatory for Women at Alderson, Md., for conspiracy to defraud the United States of $100,000.

Curley was arrested in 1945 after a long flight from justice. He was charged with conspiring to defraud the United States of $100,000.

Curley was sentenced to 18 months in the Federal Reformatory for Women at Alderson, Md., for conspiracy to defraud the United States of $100,000.

The former vice president will speak tonight at the government-owned Watergate, along the Potomac, not far from the White House, unless a district court during the day prohibits his use of federal property.

Shopworn Scheme Is Worked Again

UNIONTOWN, June 16.—(INS)—Some confidence schemes may get shop-worn, but they still seem to be good enough.

A gypsy woman appeared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thompson and informed them she could cure their daughter's illness with herbs and faith.

For the first "treatment" she had the parents place $100 in cash, a $250 diamond ring, a table covering, some silverware and some small household effects under the girl's pillow.

She returned the next day for the second "treatment." She told everybody to leave the house.

When the family returned the gypsy was gone and so were the valuables.

HARRISBURG, June 16.—(INS)—House leaders today scrapped the plans for an all night session and said the legislative day would be extended to Tuesday if it became apparent that sine die adjournment could not be accomplished this evening.

The confusion attending the closing session made it possible that the announced decision would be rescinded as the session progressed during the day and a new tentative time for the gavel to fall fixed.

Pozza Battles Wheeler Tonight

Light-Heavyweights Meet In Main Three Round Bout

BROTHERS, ELISCO GIBBONS ON CARD

Billy Pozza of Ellwood City and Buddy Wheeler, colored, of Youngstown, both light-heavyweights, are scheduled to meet in the main three round bout of an eight-bout boxing show which will be held in the Arena, commencing at 8:30 p. m. tonight.

Pozza is favored to win because of his showing against Johnny Santelli of Canton, recently in Ellwood City. His vicious attack sent Santelli to the floor. Wheeler is reputed to be the K. of C. tournament light heavyweight champion of Youngstown.

BILLY POZZA

Elkins Brothers, colored dynamic puncher of this city, is scheduled to box George Butnouch of Monaca, in the next to last bout. George moves faster than Brothers, but Brothers punch makes up for what he lacks in speed.

Elisco vs. Ronzi

Guy Elisco, the short-pudgy heavyweight of New Castle, will tangle a third time with Rizieri Ronzi of Youngstown, who was knocked out two weeks ago by Brothers. Elisco and Rizieri each hold a victory, hence their match tonight is the "rubber bout."

Chuck Gibbons, of Ellwood City, whose facial appearance is akin to that of Billy Conn's, is scheduled to take on Earl Brooks of Monaca, at 145 while Joe Butnouch, a south-paw bantamweight will battle Chuck Bratton of Youngstown, at 118.

Danny Benedetto of Youngstown, who has fought here, will take on Russell Milnes of Monaca at 150 and Charles Muslin of Beaver Falls fights Susky Harris of Youngstown at 135. Freddy Mays of Youngstown and Billy Weigle of Monaca, at 130, will open the show.

The Jefferson A. C. is the promoter.

Edenburg Snaps Wampum Win Streak At 5 Games

TIGERS SURPRISE CHAMPIONS, 4 TO 1

EDENBURG, June 16.—Edenburg's Tigers threw the County League race into a turmoil here Sunday as they joined the loop-leading Wampum Legion, 4-1, snapping a five-game win streak of the champs.

Bob Hilke and Andy Susany teamed up to silence the Wampum bats in a fine dual hurling performance. Hilke had to retire in the fifth when he was struck on the arm with a pitched ball, Susany twirling masterful ball in the relief chore. Together they limited the champs to five hits.

Frank Powell made his second start of the season for the Legion, going the distance and being nicked for eight blows, four of them by J. Exposito and T. Olive.

Yankees-Braves League Leaders At The Moment

Yanks Defeat Browns Twice, Boston Braves Slaughter Pirates In Twin Bill

By LES CONKLIN

(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 16.—The major league standings present a complete face-lifting job today with new leaders—the New York Yankees in the American League and the Boston Braves in the National—showing the way in both circuits.

The Yankees, who had tried vainly to swing a deal with the St. Louis Browns for Jack Kramer, came up with a double dose of irony in trouncing the Browns twice, 10 to 4 and 2 to 1.

Jones Hits Ball

The Chicago White Sox may have handed the pennant when they swapped Murrell Jones to the Red Sox for Big Chief Rudy York, whose teepee had been the Boston doghouse. In his first three games with Boston, Jones has made six hits in 11 times at bat. Yesterday he walloped two homers, the second one, a grand-slammer, winning the nightcap, and drove in seven runs as the Red Sox tied Detroit for second place by drubbing the White Sox twice, 7 to 3 and 8 to 4.

Tigers Drop Two

Detroit's slumping Tigers could get only one run, and that unearned, in losing twice to Walter Masterson and Mickey Haeftner of Washington, 1 to 0 and 5 to 1, and relinquishing the league lead.

Grandpa Mel Harder was credited with the 22nd victory of his big league career as Cleveland downed the Athletics 5 to 2. Philadelphia came back to win the second game, 6 to 4.

Pirates Slaughtered

It was fitting that Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain, the 1-2 men of Boston's pitching staff, were the winning pitchers as the Braves jumped to first place in the National league by slaughtering the Pirates twice, 13 to 4 and 12 to 3. Spahn has won 10 out of 12, and Sain has won seven games.

The carnage in this double slugfest totaled 43 hits, including nine homers. Pittsburgh now has dropped 15 of its last 18 starts.

It took a five-hit masterpiece by the veteran Schoolboy Rowe for the Phillies to finally beat Chicago, 6 to 1, the Cubs flopping all the way from first place to third.

Reds-Giants Split

The New York Giants held on to second place by thrashing Cincinnati 9 to 1 after the Reds had taken the opener 4 to 3 thanks to loose playing by the New Yorkers. In the nightcap Johnny Mize of the Giants, current home run king of the majors, walloped his 17th homer of the season.

It's "the Campbells are coming" in Scotland and it's "the Cardinals are coming" in St. Louis. The world's champions, by murdering the Brooklyn Dodgers 11 to 3 under a 17-hit attack.

Columbus Battles South Hill Team

E. & A. Field will be the mecca for city baseball league fans tonight at 8:45 o'clock for the recently protested South Hills and Columbus Club battles, ordered played by Commissioner Art Mittler.

Both clubs are in the thick of the pennant fight and a red-hot game is in prospect. Both managers, Jimmy Tropea of Columbus and Joe Augustine of South Hills are confident of winning.

A record crowd for the year is looked for at the E. & A. field in Mahoningtown for this crucial engagement.

Lew Worsham, Jr. New Open Champ

Oakmont Pro Wins Playoff On Final Hole As Snead Misses 30-Inch Putt

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

(International News Service Sports Writer)

EN ROUTE FROM ST. LOUIS TO DETROIT, June 16.—Twenty-nine-year-old Lew Worsham, Jr., moved in on professional golf's greatest double slam today after parlaying a dream he had two nights before into the mighty open championship of the United States.

This flint-jawed Virginian, who never had much but dreams, saw himself the open champion as he slept a fitful sleep in his St. Louis hotel room Friday night.

Heads For Detroit

Shortly before noon yesterday that dream became a smashing reality when Sam Snead, Worsham's foe for the final 18 playoff holes, missed a 30-inch putt on the final green.

So it was on to Detroit for Worsham today—Detroit and the PGA tournament which, coming back to back with the open, starts its week-long stand at Plum Hollow Golf club next Wednesday.

One man, Gene Sarazen, has won the open and the PGA the same year.

Uphill Fight

That type of challenge, however, shouldn't disturb Worsham, who had to chase Snead throughout the playoff round at St. Louis Country club yesterday—and passed him, finally, on the very last stroke.

Worsham picked up three strokes on the last three holes to win by one swing with a 69 two under par for a golf course which previously had treated the Hogans, the Lockes and the Demarets to 72 holes of frustration.

Herford Manor Farms, route 288, west of Zelienople. All funds for the show will be devoted to a youth recreation program at Zelienople.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

WILLIAM (KID) BROAD, a former pugilist, was found dead in New York, Wednesday. He fought Abe Attell, Young Corbett, George Dixon and Terry McGovern. Here and There Kid Broad lived in the same apartment house in New York City, and many times, over a bowl of java, the Kid spun stories of the boxing ring. The Kid was the first boxer here and There met when he arrived from Cleveland in New York. The writer took Walter Little, Chicago lightweight, to the Sharkey A. C. where he boxed Wild Bert Keyes (who also fought here). Little was under the management of the late Parson Tom McGinty of Cleveland. In Little's corner that night were, The Parson, The Kid and Cleveland. The fight between Keyes and Little was fast and furious, but the house was poor. In fact, Little's end was $47, and the match-maker gave The Parson "orders" to spend some of it in the corner saloon, which The Parson did. After that fight, The Kid took over Little's training. Little was matched to fight Mike Cashman. In the gymnasium, Broad and Harlan Tommy Murphy had an argument, and out of that argument came the assertion that Broad had consumption. The report worried him no little, and it was years before The Kid forgave Murphy, believing he had started the story. Broad told Here and There of knocking out Terry McGovern in Baltimore and of them ringing down the curtain. We never investigated the story, but we do know that old Bat Masterson, the famous gun-fighter of the west, who was writing sports on the Morning Telegraph was The Kid's firm friend. The Kid was the son of a minister, having been born in Cleveland. He migrated east and did his fighting out of New York. He was one of the best in the game. He bore the marks of many grueling encounters. His nose was reduced to pulp and his nose was pounded flat. Upon one occasion a cartoonist in the sports department of the New York American caricatured The Kid as a Chinaman. This incensed him so, he threatened to lick the cartoonist. Seizing the paper he rushed toward the paper but he was talked out of his intention. Although he long has passed his heyday he was always able to pay his own way, and thought little of ex-fighters who hung around Broadway accepting favors from former admirers. He had one man, whom whom many dollars on him, to whom he could turn in time of real need. There wasn't a harmful bone in The Kid's body. He turned many favors for the gang which hung around Dowling's and Billy Bishop's, the former on Broadway, and the latter on Eighth avenue. He was never heard to grumble over having spent his money.

Pirates Purchase Roger Wolff From Cleveland Indians

PITTSBURGH, June 16.—(INS)—Roger Wolff, who two years ago almost knuckle-balled Washington into the world series, today was the property of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Bucs yesterday purchased the 34-year-old Wolff from Cleveland after other American league clubs had waived. The price, General Manager H. Roy Hamey said, was "slightly more" than the waiver price of $10,000. Wolff, who won 20 last year and lost 10 for Washington in 1945, had an 0-0 record with Cleveland this year and appeared in five games. In six years in the American league he won 51, lost 65.

National Football League Commissioner Bert Bell has announced that John A. Glascock has been signed by the league as a referee.
